

CELEBRATED LIVING

SUMMER 2003

PLATINUM LIST Hotels

TOP 10 BOUTIQUE HOTELS

The 2003 Platinum List

WHERE	WHAT WE LOVE
2. XV Beacon, Boston	Four-poster beds, half-bottles of Opus One in the mini-bar, fresh flowers, commissioned art, and complimentary car service. (877) 982-3226 or (617) 670-1500; www.xvbeacon.com
3. Maison Orleans, New Orleans	Ritz runs it, personal butlers service it. Seventy-five Parisian-style piéd-à-terre boast floor-to-ceiling windows and canopied beds. (800) 241-3333 or (504) 670-2900; www.ritzcarlton.com
4. Four Seasons Hotel Tokyo at Marunouchi	Plasma TVs, egg-shaped baths, a spa, and views over the Tokyo International Forum — all for the occupants of 57 rooms. (800) 819-5053 or (011) 81-3-5222-7222; www.fourseasons.com/marunouchi
5. Chambers Hotel, New York	This sleek, art-filled hotel boasts scene and cuisine at its restaurant, Town. (212) 974-5656; www.chambershotel.com

The Water Club

Hotel ZaZa

The Ambrose

6. The Water Club, San Juan	Chic and sleek (just ask former guest Giorgio Armani), with the loving attention of an on-site owner/manager and his massive mastiff. (888) 265-6699 or (787) 728-3666; www.waterclubsanjuan.com
7. Hotel ZaZa, Dallas	Looks like a design boutique, serves like a Four Seasons. Mood-setting changes from day (flowers, sunny lighting) to eve (candles, acid jazz). (800) 597-8399 or (214) 468-8399; www.hotelzaza.com
8. Delano, Miami Beach	Always a show in the lobby, this hotel's still setting trends. (800) 555-5001 or (305) 672-2000; www.ianschragerhotels.com
9. Opus Hotel, Vancouver, B.C.	The range of room decor extends from sleek urbanism to neo-bohemian. Arty clientele in hip Yaletown. (866) 642-6787 or (604) 642-6787; www.opushotel.com
10. The Ambrose, Santa Monica	Careful Craftsman architecture, outdoor fireplaces, and room service from Celestino Drago. (877) 262-7673 or (310) 315-1555; www.ambrosehotel.com

