

SAVOIR

Magazine Franco-Américain

As you will find out later in this issue, there are ways to live better without damaging the environment. The Ambrose Hotel in Santa Monica gives its guests an elegant retreat that gently combines Asian and Californian influences in a sober and cozy style. Under the guidance of Deirdre Wallace, the hotel is respectful of the environment at all levels (maintenance, recycling, energy, etc.), while offering a setting full of natural organic products and services such as organic mattresses and Aveda cosmetics.